- Have proven organisational skills and a track record of effective and efficient administration.
- Be able to prioritise and manage a demanding workload and work to tight deadlines.
- Be a strong team player, who fits in with our friendly, approachable team.
- Be diplomatic and capable of handling complex situations.
- Be able to deal effectively in all business relationships while projecting a positive image of the company.
- Have excellent writing skills to fulfil ad-hoc feature or press release tasks.
- Have a professional, friendly manner when dealing with incoming telephone and email enquiries.
- Greet and assist visitors when arriving at the office.
- Have experience in assisting with HR processes including recruitment.
- Have knowledge of how to prepare invoices each month and be responsible for credit control under the supervision of a fully trained accountant as well as collating the team's expenses for submission to payroll.

Degree in PR, Marketing, Communications or Journalism is also desirable but not essential.

In turn, we'll offer a competitive salary, free parking, staff incentives and socials as well as a friendly culture with team spirit at the core.
